"Pray for Synod"

For this month's newsletter I want to take this space to request your prayers for our denomination gathering for Synod 2025 at Redeemer University, Ancaster, Ontario, Canada. Do pray for safe travel for all the delegates including myself, and vitality to all the churches in our denomination. There is a lot going on in 1100 churches in CRCNA. The agenda is nearly 500 pages this year and includes the following:

-- Task Force reports:

1. A definitive and comprehensive report on the practice of Assisted Suicide that is fully legal in all of Canada and in a small number of US states.
 - a. Sadly, this report doesn't go far enough in its recommendations, and it will take the work of Synod 25 to correct.
2. The report on the possibilities and parameters of a virtual church:
 - a. The question is, can a church solely exist online with no physical location to attend, pray, and most importantly receive the sacraments.
 - b. It will be the recommendation of our delegation that a virtual church can't be independent of a physical body, but that connecting virtually is a short-term solution when the need arises.
3. A task force assembled to clarify the nature and extent to which synodical pronouncements are settled and binding with regard to members, office-bearers and churches.
 - a. This report only muddies the waters further and will need to be sent back for one more year.

-- Standing Committees: will report on the process of approving Commissioned pastor's contingent on their completion of the requirements for ordination. – this conversation is needed. -Pray for wisdom.

The Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations Committee will present its response to our relationship with the RCA. They would like the CRCNA to remain in the status Quo. The EIRC notes "20 CRC ministers serve in the RCA and 46 RCA ministers serve in the CRC" and "there are nine 'union' congregations dually affiliated with both the CRC and the RCA."

-It would be our recommendation that we no longer see the RCA as a church in communion. But a church in partnership as we currently do with the PCA and others. -Pray

The Historical Committee has no significant item to synod this year other than appointing new members. Thankfully, there are faithful candidates.

-- Agencies, Institutions, and Ministries

Calvin Theological Seminary's Board of Trustees will report that the seminary has never required its faculty to sign the covenant for office-bearers even though its students have been required. -Pray that this will change.

Calvin University Board of Trustees report will be given that they have a desire for a longer time to get their faculty in line with the denomination on Human Sexuality. -Pray that this plea is rejected.

- All faculty and staff will need to be aligned with the faith and practice of the denomination. This is the prayer request.
- The Trustees are also out of alignment, and it is our prayer at this synod that they would realign the Board of Trustees at Calvin University.

Canadian Justice Ministries, Loan fund, Pensions, Reframe, World Renew have no recommendations to report.

Resonate is beginning to end some international ministry in an effort to preserve staff in the home office. -This is a much-needed prayer request for a change of focus at Resonate.

Thrive needs to be sun-setted as a ministry as it is disproportionately spending the resources of the denomination on overhead. -Pray that this agency would end well.

-- Overtures: these are communications from churches to aid in governing the denomination.

There are 30 overtures to read I would encourage each person to do so. We are currently recommending the following:

Yes -1-2, 4, 6, 8, 21-27, 29, 30 -Pray that all of these will pass with unified reports No: 3, 5, 9-20, 28

7. maybe- but needs work

Communications: less weight than overtures, but seeking a voice

Accept : 5, 7 -Pray that these will be accepted. Reject: 1-4, 6, 8, 9, 10

Appeals: Accept #1. Reject #2: Appeal #1 is very important. -Pray the most for this one.

Blessings, Pastor Matt

Welcome Jerad & Hannah Kats

Jerad and Hannah both grew up in Hull.

Jerad attended Western Christian and Hannah attended Boyden-Hull.

Jerad has two siblings, a younger brother and an older sister. His sister is married with a one-year-old son!

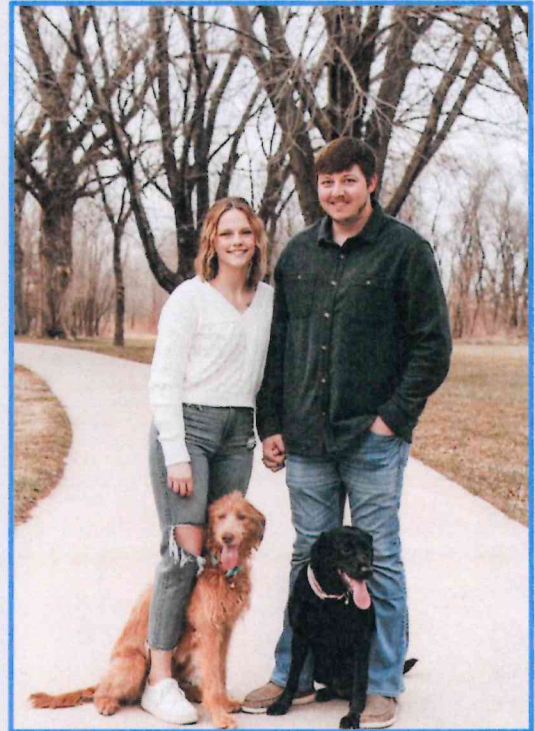

Hannah is the youngest of four, she has two older brothers and an older sister. Her sister is also married with a four-year-old son!

Jerad and Hannah met when she was working at Cenex in Hull. He was driving truck and would always go there to get fuel.

They live on an acreage outside of Inwood with their two dogs, Bailey and Casey; their cats, Bernice and Trudy; and a few chickens!

Jerad works for Eric DeJager as a farmhand, and Hannah teaches preschool in Brandon.

They stay busy with work, whether it be at their jobs or doing things on the acreage, but aside from that, they enjoy hanging out with their families, being outdoors, and spending time with their dogs! They also enjoy plenty of lake days in Yankton during the summer. Lately, they have been anxiously prepping for the arrival of their son this September!

Sioux Falls Mission Service

On April 29, our Church through members in Care Groups 2 & 8, were allowed to spread God's Word and His love at the Sioux Falls Men's Mission. We were welcomed by the 40+ men in attendance. They were respectful and joyous in the service presented.

Church members in attendance were Evan & Kim Altena, Mike; Tammy & Joel Baartman; Elmer & Lori Boon; Brian & Ranae Faber; James, Rachelle & Carter Vanden Bos; Randy & Mary Vande Kamp; Tim & Kim Van Tilburg; and Merlin Van Otterloo.

Randy opened with a word of prayer. Merlin led the song service with comforting familiar hymns which continued with special requests from the men. Rachelle was our piano accompanist. Elmer gave a very inspiring message on the truths that are clearly said to us in the Bible. These truths are: 1) I am a sinner, 2) Jesus paid for my debt, 3) I am called to believe and belong to Him today! "Jesus, Draw Me Ever Nearer" was a special number sung by Kim, Mike, Tammy, Elmer, Ranae, James, Rachelle, Randy, Mary, & Merlin. Closing prayer was led by Mike.

We pray that those in attendance could see Jesus in us that day, as we could see Jesus in the men who had so little yet proclaimed their faith in God with such conviction and enthusiasm.

Gerrit and Esther Kats Celebrate 65 Years of Marriage

In a time before smartphones and social media, young people in small-town Iowa enjoyed a slow cruise down Main Street after catechism. It was during these evenings that Gerrit and Esther Kats began spending time together. Gerrit was from Rock Valley and a student at Western Christian High School. Esther was from Carmel and attended Rock Valley Community School. "We were in Carmel, and us girls would pile into a car after catechism and stroll down Main Street Rock Valley and look for guys," said Esther. "It was just what we did back then."

Chuckling, Gerrit shared that Esther always seemed to ask him for a ride home. "She always had an excuse," he said. "She'd say, 'I don't have a ride home. Would you take me home?'"

The couple, now residents of RiverView Ridge Senior Living, recently marked 65 years of marriage by renewing their marriage vows. The celebration came to fruition due to RiverView Ridge's Dare to Dream Program, an initiative by which the facility's staff help to make the dreams of the residents become a reality. Their daughter, Beth, sang beautifully as Esther walked down an aisle that was lined with flowers by a couple of Gerrit and Esther's friends.

Their pastor, Matthew Haan, opened the ceremony by sharing that the renewal of vows holds significant meaning in the Reformed tradition.

"In Reformed worship, renewal is often seen as a reflection of God's covenant with humanity," he said. "Therefore, vows are taken, often with sacrifice and commitment. And there are times in life when vows are renewed, and they are renewed just as seriously as when they were originally taken. Those can happen to mark milestones in life, after great struggle, or relationship moments of growth. As Gerrit and Esther reseal their covenant commitment to one another today and continue their commitment to one another, we are thankful for the fullness of their family, their children, their grandchildren, their great-grandchildren, and all the ways the Lord has blessed them."

After Haan shared a message with a few Bible passages that are meaningful to Gerrit and Esther, the couple renewed their vows to one another. After the ceremony, the couple celebrated the joyous occasion with friends.

Gerrit and Esther were married in 1960. During the first year of their marriage, they lived in Hull. Gerrit worked at Kooima Company, and Esther worked at a factory in Sheldon. They soon moved to Rock Valley and lived near Calvin Christian Reformed Church before buying a farm south of town.

In 1985, Gerrit and Esther, along with three of their four children, moved to California. Gerrit was in search of steady work, something that was difficult to come by at the time in Iowa.

"My son was in California, and he said, 'Dad, come up here. There's all kinds of work.' So, we did. We ended up in Escondido," said Gerrit.

There, life took a steadier turn. "I worked for a man who owned several plants. I stayed with him for 30 years."

Esther really enjoyed California, explaining that they made many friends and recalling their wonderful church.

The Kats moved back to Rock Valley in 2014 and have enjoyed their time back in Iowa.

Gerrit and Esther are extremely thankful to God for blessing them so abundantly during the last 65 years and shared a couple of simple pieces of advice - "Work hard, and you won't always agree with one another, but things will always work out," said Gerrit.

“Dedication”

When reading the story of Samuel from the Bible, I often think what it would be like to be dedicated from an early age for service in God’s house. Then I am reminded again of the baptismal vows that were taken for me and for all of us and I can put myself in Samuel’s place. Granted, I am not spending my days within the walls of the church, however I am spending my days in the place where God has placed me, the place where I can do the most work for his kingdom at this time. A year from now it may be a different place with a different job and a different set of circumstances, but for now I am where God wants me to be.

As we all live, work, and worship in the place that God has us, we also see the dedication that Samuel had to put to the task being in the service of God. His dedication extended beyond just a job; it extended to his following of God no matter the cost. This led him to confront fellow believers and kings. He had to tell Eli that his sons were going to be killed, and he had to take the kingship away from Saul. Each of these instances could have ended badly for Samuel but he went forward with the messages following God’s command.

Do I have that dedication? Do we have that dedication? Are we willing and able to respond with God’s heart, his words and follow through with his actions? That not only takes dedication to God, but it takes serious belief and trust in our heavenly father. I pray that in our lives we can begin to listen to and for God and follow through no matter the cost.

It may seem impossible to do, how can we as mere human beings follow through with that dedication and that commitment? Thankfully, we have someone to follow who dedicated himself to a path that led to our justification, our salvation and ultimately our opportunity to have eternal life. Jesus Christ dedicated himself to the journey of the cross, the visit to the tomb and the return to glory. We also have the opportunity to follow that same path, perhaps not to the extent that he did but with any number of hardships, pain, and suffering in between. Our human frailty cannot carry us rather we do so in the strength that we have found in Jesus.

We are called to continue our walk of dedication to our heavenly father and the work he has for us in the places where he has put us. We don’t aspire to be Samuel instead we aspire to follow his example and live a life of dedication. It started up at the baptismal font with our parents and the rest of the church taking commitments to be there for us. It continues with us, with the church universal, coming besides the next generation and our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ and “re-dedicating” ourselves to God’s continued work. In that dedication, we live, work, and have our being, being ready to serve, ready to lead, ready to follow Christ, our brother and the kingship of our heavenly father.

Cornerstone Prison Church Newsletter

As you come to him, the living Stone - rejected by humans but chosen by God and precious to him - you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For in Scripture it says:

"See, I lay a stone in Zion,
a chosen and precious cornerstone,
and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame."

Spring 2025

EXPANDING THE KINGDOM FROM THE INSIDE-OUT

This month is the 20th Anniversary of Cornerstone being a church in the South Dakota State Penitentiary. I can hardly imagine the changes that have happened over the entire twenty years as I have been the pastor for roughly 1/5 of that time and have experienced so many changes in just the recent four years. Many changes have brought challenges in a place that is already challenging, but through it all God has been faithful. He has provided all that we need to continue to share the gospel. He continues to guide men in growing faith and show his faithfulness in many testimonies and answered prayers.

One of the passages that captures the pastoral heart and reminds us to lean into God's faithfulness is the opening of 1 Thessalonians 3. There Paul begins requesting prayer from the folks he is writing to and seems like he cannot help himself but also pray for them.

1 Thessalonians 3:1- 5 Says:

As for other matters, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you. And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil people, for not everyone has faith. But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one. We have confidence in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command. May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perseverance.

That pivot of praying for and inviting prayer from his readers centered on the faithfulness of God is something that I often feel. I very much appreciate the support and the prayers of many individual partners in ministry and supporting Churches. At the same time, I pray that your churches may have opportunities to see the love of God and experience Christ preserving you the way we see Christian perseverance often at Cornerstone.

Please join us in thanking God for his faithfulness the last 20 years, inviting His rich blessing on Cornerstone's future and know that we are thankful for your partnership. Know that we are praying that you will see and feel the faithfulness of God in your churches and individual faith journeys.

“Thoughts for Father’s Day”

A careful man I ought to be; a little fellow follows me;
I do not dare to go astray, for fear he’ll go the self-same way.

I cannot once escape his eyes; whate’er he sees me do, he tries —
Like me, he says, he’s going to be, the little chap who follows me.

He thinks that I am good and fine, believes in every word of mine:
The base in me he must not see, the little chap who follows me.

I must remember as I go, through summer’s sun and winter’s snow,
I’m building for the years to be, for a little fellow follows me.

—Author unknown

“What is a Father?”

Being a male species does not make a man a father, for a dad is a special blend of hero; disciplinarian; a friend; someone to look up to; someone to model ... someone with a touch of the “mother” in him; someone who is big enough to say, “The fault was mine” ... someone who lives the kind of life that makes you want to say, “I, too, shall follow him!”

—Alton Kaul

“Constant and Unchanging”

Summer’s arrival feels positive to many people but may not be smooth for all. Families who rely on regular school meals for their children must stretch grocery dollars further. Heat poses risks for elderly people who lack air conditioning. Work can be difficult to find in the summer months, and uncertainty looms for recent graduates. Meanwhile, concerns such as wars, natural disasters and health problems don’t take a summer break.

St. Teresa of Avila (1515–1582) prayed, “May you be blessed forever, Lord, for being constant and unchanging, amidst all the changes of the world.” Her prayer is as appropriate today as nearly 500 years ago. When all around us is unstable and unreliable, God’s love and faithfulness are constant and trustworthy.

“The Joy of Generosity”

He who has received much should also give much. It is essential to give a goodly part of what God has allowed us to accumulate. Otherwise, greed and miserliness will seize our hearts and minds.

Furthermore, by not giving generously, we will miss the many joys that generosity brings to us.

Let us not cheat ourselves of those blessings.

Bible Trivia

Who said to the prophet Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD”?

- A. Reuben, for selling Joseph into slavery
- B. Jacob, for deceiving Isaac and stealing his brother’s birthright
- C. Rahab, a prostitute
- D. David, considered Israel’s greatest king

"Handling Grief"

When a Southern Christian woman became a widow, several people asked what she was going to do. She always answered by saying, "I'm going to do Proverbs 3:5-6 and Philippians 4:4-7." Both passages provide wonderful doses of strength and encouragement. (If you aren't familiar with the verses, look them up to see for yourself.) When we completely trust in God for guidance and peace, he not only sees us through difficult times but allows us to rejoice rather than worry.

"The Music Of The Trees"

How I love to hear the rustle of the leaves upon the trees
When the foliage of summer is a moving in the breeze
When the oak and beech and maple are a tuning up the air
As they hear the quaking aspen sending signals everywhere.

The deciduous forest people are a music making band
With their symphonies so simple that a child can understand
For there's meaning in their rhythm and a pleasure 'mong the trees
When the wind is blowing through them and a stirring all the leaves.

There's an overture in whispers which is soothing to the ear
Then a chorus full of comfort just a chasing out your fear
As the louder it is sounding and the louder yet again
Till at last are joys abounding when it falls in sweet refrain.

Yes, it brings you heaps of solace when the wind is blowing soft
In a lullaby of nature which will bear you way aloft
Till you leave this world of trouble with its fretting and its care
As you listen to the rustle of the leaves a playing there.

O, I love to stop and hearken to the music of the trees
As the wind is sighing through them or a playing with the leaves
There's a harmony that holds you in the noises of the wood
Where I never tire of listening for it does a fellow good.

~Charles A. Heath

"Whoever Makes a Garden"

Whoever makes a garden, has never worked alone.
The rain has always found it; the sun has always known.
The wind has blown across it, and helped to scatter seeds.
Whoever makes a garden, has all the help he needs.

Whoever makes a garden, should surely not complain.
With someone like the sunshine, and someone like the rain.
And someone like the breezes, to aid him in his toil.
And someone like the Father, who gave the garden soil.

Whoever makes a garden, has, oh, so many friends.
The glory of the morning; the dew when daylight ends.
For rain and wind and sunshine, and dew and fertile sod.
And he who makes a garden, works hand and hand with God.
